Time Among the Maya: Travels in Belize, Guatemala, and Mexico

The book is good for someone who would like to know what Mayan history and current life are like. It's hard to keep it all straight, and the extra details make the writing feel direction-less at times. The author intersperses an account of a circuit he made of Mayan sites in Belize, Guatemala, and Mexico with explanations of the Mayan calendar, the Mayan world view and religion, and Mayan history.

Wright may be a failed archeologist, but I would bet that many professional archeologists study his work for its wonderful detail and insight. Hundreds attended the funeral of the victims, and a new guerilla group was formed commemorating the date, the Frente patriótico 31 de enero Popular Front of January 31.
