Nicholls, Bob, Author at Naval Historical Society of Australia

He told me not to make trouble of any sort, not to fraternise with the coloured people when they were around and, above all, not to appear under the influence of liquor on the streets, as it let down the white people in front of the coloureds, which was a serious crime. Much inconvenience is caused by the want of an official seal for the purpose of certifying copies of files and records frequently called for as evidence in the civil courts. After leaving the shipyard, Surcouf went to New London, Connecticut, perhaps to receive additional training for her crew.
