City of Tallahassee: Boards

We are looking for a broad range of people to sit on the committee and encourage those who have may been sitting on the sidelines, but want to be more involved to jump on in.

City of Durham NC: Boards

The Human Relations Commission consist of 17 members.

Boards & Committees

Both groups believe participation is useful, it improves decisions, increases mutual trust, and creates transparency. The County Matching Grants Program Administrator.

Citizen Participation

Purpose: The Commission exists to foster the growth and development of City and County in the area of human relations, and to create a climate in which citizens of all races, creeds, and political beliefs can understand and respect each other. People must participate in decision-making and planning but that was not implemented. They strongly expressed their dissatisfaction and their distrust towards management by the councilors and the current decision making process CR3, CR4, CR9, AB3, AB4, FC3, NGO2, NGO1, PS2 and L1.
