折口信夫 1887

Most of the early scholars were amateur in the literal sense that they gained a living as government employees, school teachers, or businessmen, or lived on private means and indulged in research at their own expense and only on their own spare time.

Japanese history : a guide to Japanese reference and research materials / John W. Hall.

The title of this Guide designates its contents from the viewpoint of American and other Western scholars, but we have attempted to follow a comfortably lenient and inclusive definition of the appropriate scope of contents. Medical terms in vital statistics have undergone several redefinitions while gradually approaching international standardization; census districts have been redrawn; the boundaries of towns, cities, etc. Because of its broad coverage of social, political, economic, religious, and folkloristic problems, this dictionary, when complete, will be an indispensable tool for the historian.

Japanese sociology and social anthropology : a guide to Japanese reference and research materials / compiled by Richard K. Beardsley, Nakano Takashi ; contributions by Morioka Kiyomi, Okada Yuzuru ; with indexes to authors and localities.

Hozumi Shigeto, Rikon seido no kenkyu Studies of divorce systems. The collection of artifacts he and his friends accumulated in his attic gave a name to the Attic Museum, an institute which published reports by members of his group.
