Of the many interesting findings, we note the presence of empirical support for the board as a facilitator for change. These practices violate the spirit of the Accord and the terms outlined in the Codes of Good Practice for Funding, which together explicitly acknowledge the independence of the voluntary sector and call for multiyear and flexible funding agreements Government of Canada, 2001 ; VSI, 2002.

The mainstreaming of the third sector into public policy in England in the late 1990s: whys and wherefores

Strategic Management Journal, 16 6 , 477—495. Notwithstanding the variance in time-frames between the two agreements, the following factors were assessed: clarity and consistency of policy objectives; the adequacy and validity of causal theory and jurisdiction; a supportive implementation process assignment to sympathetic agencies, adequate hierarchical integration, supportive decision rules, and sufficient financial resources ; commitment and skill of implementing officials; continuing backing from supporters and legislators; and changes in supportive conditions.

Social enterprise

HCPOs seem to have more impact on the detail of policy than on the direction of travel. From Outcomes-Based Commissioning to Social Value? This is not critical judgement on my part — in fact there are plentiful examples of successfully enterprising social enterprises around the world.
