Interfaith Engagement and Christian Mission

Ideally, interfaith dialogue is supposed to help each participant better understand their own religion and discover the areas in which their religion is unique. Many Presbyterians are Native American, but Presbyterians also recognize that our relationships with Native Americans are interfaith. From his position he was able to identify the many issues with the resettlement program.

Interfaith Worship: How Should Christians Respond?

Fear tries to do the impossible, crossing time and space to go into the future and remove a burden that makes life toxic. During my ordination, I cast my mind's eye back to my younger-self of university graduation and could see that my life had symbolically come 'full circle' to a healing in my own psyche in a symbolic 'ouroboros' in the connection of head and heart, in an ever deeper 'owning' of my 'True Self' as an ordained Interfaith Minister.

The Challenges of Interfaith Dialogue

To enter into conversations with those from different backgrounds and ask the hard, uncomfortable questions.

After all, many religions make similar claims that often conflict with beliefs of other religions.

Ecumenism

Today, on the day of Dr. The Future None of the issues that have separated Jews and Christians have disappeared entirely; change is evolutionary, especially when dealing with age-old religious beliefs. The state of Jewish-Christian relations varies from group to group, but some general trends do emerge from examining the ways that Jews and Christians interact today: — The Holocaust profoundly affected the ways that Christians from across the theological spectrum think about and interact with Jews.

Jewish

With more accurate information in hand, many non-Muslim scholars concluded that Muḥammad was sincere and devout, challenging the prevailing Western view that he was a shrewd and sinister charlatan. His encounter with Muslims in the Umayyad administrative and military center of Damascus led him to regard Islam not as an alien tradition but as a Christian heresy. We all insist on telling the truth, and we all hold on to hope as a way to move forward.

What Is Interfaith Dialogue?

Reflections by a prominent Christian scholar of Islam. In addition to serving people in need, such partnerships can impact unbelievers to consider or reconsider the good news of Jesus.

Are interfaith ministries appropriate?

Interfaith dialogue can be an excellent way to heal divisions in society. At the same time, even in providing that aid, the message of the gospel is not to be compromised.
