

Indian scout talks - a guide for Boy scouts and Campfire girls

Little, Brown, and company - Indian Scout Craft and Lore Quotes by Charles Alexander Eastman

Description: -

-

Boy Scouts

Indians of North America -- Social life and customs

Outdoor life

Camp Fire Girls
Indian scout talks - a guide for Boy scouts and Campfire girls

-Indian scout talks - a guide for Boy scouts and Campfire girls

Notes: Reprinted in part from various periodicals.

This edition was published in 1914

Filesize: 9.26 MB

Tags: #Browse #subject: #Boy #Scouts

Indian Scout Talks: A Guide for Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls from Project Gutenberg

How thrilling, how tantalizing the cry of the screech-owl! In fact, the travois was his primitive vehicle for many years after the advent of the horse. As the child grows, he becomes more and more expert and daring; from this time on he eagerly seeks perfection in his new art.

Indian Scout Talks

He proceeds on foot to a good camping-place, and there builds his shelter of whatever material is most abundant. Further than this, you may be able to correct some error, or even to learn something that will be a real contribution to the sum of human knowledge. Even upon a living enemy, if he is overpowered and held captive, these four counts could properly be shared by the warriors.

Indian Scout Talks

Sign for House, then Camp sign. Perhaps no one save an Indian could make a bear cub whip a spinning-top, holding the whip handle in his mouth, 102 as I have seen it done on these field-days. We then place the stones so as to convey intelligence to our friends.

Indian Scout Craft and Lore Quotes by Charles Alexander Eastman

Four short flashes signifies a meeting with a stranger or news from a distance. Cover mouth with palm of right hand, open eyes widely, and move head slightly backward.

Browse subject: Camp Fire Girls

Lang: -eng , Pages 220 , Print on Demand.

Indian Scout Talks: A Guide for Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls

He develops it after the fashion of another system of precaution; that is, he takes note of the danger-signals of the animals, those unconscious criers of the wilderness, both upon water and land. There a boy is accustomed to see the sun rise and set every day; there rocks and trees are personal friends, and his geography is born with him, for he carries a map of the region in his head.

Related Books

- Popular art in Afghanistan - paintings on trucks, mosques, and tea-houses
- Enduring crisis - refugee problems in eastern Sudan
- Textile and Clothing Inquiry - Report to the Minister of Regional Industrial Expansion : Apparent Ma
- 40th Oom Pasikom
- Hompa Mbambangandu Wouviri