This is generally a successful route for training as this breed of dogs is very intelligent and will learn quickly. The only caution with children is that the Sheltie is a small breed of dog and can be easily injured so supervision is necessary. Often a Sheltie can be trained to give 2 to 3 barks to alert you to a visitor at the door or a stranger on the property.

Sheltie Talk

If you see a gray or pink oval in the claw, stop cutting, as this precedes the blood-lined quick. Shelties have a double coat, which means that they have two layers of fur that make up their coat.
