

Hēnare te Ua - in the air

Reed Books - Te Aniwa Hurihanganui

Description: -

-

Radio broadcasters -- New Zealand -- Biography

Te Ua, Hēnare, -- 1933-Hēnare te Ua - in the air

-Hēnare te Ua - in the air

Notes: Includes index.

This edition was published in 2005

Filesize: 21.29 MB

Tags: #The #University #of #Alabama

The University of Alabama

If not satisfied with the response, the complaint may be referred to the online complaint form at along with a link to the relevant story and all correspondence with the publication.

Learning from the Moa: The Challenge of Māori Language Revitalization in Aotearoa/New Zealand

Near riot at bottom of Queen St. By 2014, many Pākehā and upper-class Māori were interested in learning the indigenous language. Nga Taonga Korero Jensen, Owen A history of the YC Stations and the Concert Programme, Sound Archives Nga Taonga Korero Lee, Michael 1996 A history of radio news, 'Insight' documentary.

The University of Alabama

From Mt Albert Street the unit then relocated to Cook Street where they finally moved across to Hobson Street with Radio New Zealand as a separate unit.

Contents of the programmes from Resounding Radio

First manager West Coast uses shortwave and local station to feed news of Napier to listeners and newspapers Mic Spiers manager 3ZR. Radio under new umbrella of Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand BCNZ, alongside TV. Bout transcribed from Morse Code.

2007 in New Zealand

Sound Sources Beatson, Donna 199? Nine people died on the roads.

Related Books

- Headquater-subsiadiary relationships in multinational corporations.
- Michelin tourist and motoring atlas France.
- Sefer yovel le-Finhas Rozen - minhat shai
- Concept of scientific law in the philosphy of science and epistemology - a study of theoretical reas
- Inne spojrzenie - groteska w prozie polskiej o wojnie i okupacji : Gombrowicz, Dygat, Sandauer, Andr