12 Prayers for Children

I heard the Gospels on the radio at night. If you got angry, please do whatever is necessary to restore an open connection with your son or daughter. They would be teaching about the world religions and what they really teach rather teach and then let the children decide.

When Teens Reject Religion

The Lion of the Lord.

Parents: We All Choose Our Child's Religion

We came close: DH is a Giants fan, while I'm a Redskins fan. I believe that indoctrination of children in fundamentalist religion is child abuse. Particularly when they are under 10 and do most everything with their parents.

Parents: We All Choose Our Child's Religion

Laura: wow - did your daughter stay quiet enough for her cousins to sing the four questions? True, children who make an early profession of faith sometimes struggle with assurance and make a second public commitment later. I was there a week or so ago and she was preparing a seder for her in laws who were coming into town.

Religion and children

I am responsible for the consequences of my actions. This poor girl is so broken up and confused, no longer trusts her parents, and is now in fear of her immortal soul. A loving God would not create beings and then torment them in pain for eternity.

Your Child's Religion Is My Business Too

I believe Leslie's lack of faith in anything, whether is be religion or herself, is the reason for many of her uninformed columns and judgementals posts. Parents make the rules, and that includes what religion to observe. Sadly the author is writing what they truly feel...inspired to just be themselves with no creator.

And this can signal the onset of depression or anxiety, says John Duffy, a Chicago area clinical psychologist specializing in adolescents. Be prepared for them to question it later and do not be offended if they choose a different path.
