The Early Church Saw Itself as a Political Body. We Can Too.

The IRS has developed a task force to investigate complaints and has revoked exempt status in a few cases and issued warnings in others. Where is America's true character to be seen- in an adoptive home or at the abortion clinic? They would rather be stubborn and keep to their tradition instead of actually considering if all they knew was wrong.

As a direct result we are losing the very meaning of freedom.

7 Things Christians Need to Remember About Politics

None of the information on the Nonprofit Issues ® Website should be deemed legal advice or should be acted upon without prior consultation with appropriate professional advisors. While I occasionally feel called to preach about issues that are connected to politics, I try never to use the pulpit to advocate for a particular choice, as if faith can lead to only one answer or one way of voting on an issue.

The Democrats admit they are a Post

So some would say the Bible is very conservative. Stephen Morris, left, speaks on a political panel at Freed-Hardeman University in Henderson, Tenn.

The Church's Role in Politics

We are anxious to see if this election shows a more complex and less partisan engagement among evangelicals—one that better reflects a surprising group of people who love the weak, care for creation, honor life from conception to death, attend to justice, and seek the welfare of our neighbors.

Why the Catholic Church Does Not Endorse Political Candidates

Sandhya Rani Jha is founder and director of the Oakland Peace Center. When they do justice, it is done incrementally, and they are always wont to undo the little good that they have done. People of faith ought to recognize that to worship God is to know that we are not God.
