Housing case law

The cost of building is not less, none of the workers work for less, The Housing Corporation makes up the difference out of taxation. If these funds were provided to private sector builders, together with the necessary land, much of which is in public ownership, many more houses could be built and for less money. Public Education and Awareness Public health agencies provide information to the public regarding ways to make homes healthier and safer.

I'm absolutely clear that we have not got the balance right on the Eastfields estate. And it reinforces a distinction between housing benefit claimants and other tenants, separating benefit claimants into their own sub-market. Such a mechanism is standard practice for a project of this scale, planned to be built out over the next 15 years.

Offshore firms are allegedly being used by oligarchs to buy up London real estate as a means of. Perhaps, therefore, what we ought to be looking for is some means of determining which forms of government intervention work and which do not.

How Housing in London went into Crisis

Putting caps on private rents without working out the cost of delivering it won't work and is a waste of everyone's time and money. Two days after we met Kayleigh, the debris from the ceiling tested positive for asbestos, and the family are now being rehoused.
