Our thought is to ask Fritz in the telegram whether such a letter from you to Thuan would give him the support he needs in the difficult negotiations which will be required to persuade the Vietnamese to increase their own expenditures. It may be both possible and desirable, within available resources, to establish Army and Navy components of Military Assistance Command Vietnam, deriving benefit from the clear channels of command such an organization would afford. The Viet Cong, in sum, are being hurt--they have somewhat less freedom of movement than they had a year ago, they apparently suffer acutely from lack of medicines, and in some very isolated areas they seem to be having trouble getting food.

John F. Kennedy

His major point is that there are no professionally trained people to man mobile check points and other installations to ensure control of the movement of people and property.

Documents 31

Should General Harkins report directly to the JCS instead of CinCPac? The FY 63 force levels that would be approved if the attached memorandum is signed are compatible with the force levels proposed by CINCPAC in the CPSVN. The Montanan had served for eight years as majority leader, but always with a Democratic president.
