This is because the criminals commit them at the moment of great emotional strain. Thus, the Eighth Amendment should not be applied to abolish the death punishment. The purpose of the death penalty is to reduce crime rates.

Beyond What Works in Reducing Crime

Austria-Hungary surrendered on November 3, 1918.

Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)

This discussion paper therefore seeks to argue that the death penalty is a favorable form of punishment. The first incidence seeking to abolish the death penalty dates back in 1867 in Venezuela and 1870 in Netherlands.
