Much good work and many patents and invention disclosures followed. The day was coming when the successful prince would be more praised than the heroic monarch and the solvent sovereign more admired than the pious one. And I still have the anxiety that the medication is supposed to control.

Booth, Lawrence

I'm not sure if the vision problems are my new glasses or remnants of the drug issues. Written in a highly prescriptive mode, such texts seem to presuppose passive subjects who would have little choice but to submit to the models and programs of conduct that their authors, who were almost always male, sought to impose upon their readers.
