A treaty: Te Tiriti o Waitangi

The tribunal has, in some cases, established that the claimants had not given up sovereignty, and there are ongoing discussions with regards to the applicability of land seized in conflicts and obtained through Crown pre-emption. Partnership and participation imply interactions, commitment, honour, faith, respect towards each other and sharing of rights between both parties of the treaty Te Puni Kōkiri, 2001.

Te Tiriti o Waitangi

For many, this is justice at work, slow progress towards fairness and Maori participation, chipping away at the monocultural post-colonial attitudes, practices, structures and governance.
