Occupied Palestinian Territories

Around 800,000 olive trees have been uprooted, and in the past year more than 660 Palestinian homes and property have been demolished. . Has Israel eased movement restrictions in the West Bank over the last several years? Israel had accepted Resolution 242 in a speech to the Security Council on 1 May 1968.

Israel's settlement policy in the occupied Palestinian territory

The economic situation has also been exacerbated by a continued divide between the West Bank and Gaza, stagnating economic growth, persistent fiscal crises, higher unemployment, as well as increased poverty and food insecurity. The Fourth Geneva Convention, in Article 47, proscribes the annexation of occupied territory, and the United Nations has repeatedly condemned Israel's precipitous annexation of East Jerusalem and a wide belt of surrounding suburbs, villages and towns.
