

Slave states in the presidential election of 1860.

Peter Smith - The Presidential Election of 1860

Description: -

-slave states in the presidential election of 1860.

-

Johns Hopkins University studies in historical and political science -- no.3slave states in the presidential election of 1860.

Notes: Reprint of ed. published Baltimore, Md.: Johns Hopkins
Press, 1945.

This edition was published in 1969

Filesize: 56.69 MB

Tags: #1860 #United #States #presidential #election

1860 United States presidential election

Lincoln, whose sole experience in national government had been as a one-term member of the U. Certainly by that point in time the institution of slavery would have been seen in the North as a national embarrassment -- as no less than a moral stain on the flag of the United States.

Election of 1860

Cotton remained a highly in-demand crop in the North and in Great Britain.

The Presidential Election of 1860

He gained great notability with his February 1860 , which may have ensured him the nomination. Eventually, the state party worked out an agreement: if either candidate could win the national election with Pennsylvania's electoral vote, then all her electoral votes would go to that candidate. Commodore Perry opened Japan to world trade.

Election of 1860

Find the probability that exactly 2 of the 5 adults voted in the presidential election. Lincoln was trailed by Breckinridge with his 72 electoral votes, carrying 11 of the 15 slave states, Bell came in third with 39 electoral votes, and Douglas came in last, only able to garner twelve electoral votes despite carrying almost 30% of the popular vote. Virginia's northernmost at the time returned Lincoln's best result — he polled over 40% of the vote there and finished in second place Lincoln polled only eight votes fewer than Breckinridge.

American History USA

In comparison, the six states of the Deep South making up one-fourth the Confederate voting population, split 57 percent Breckinridge versus 43 percent for the two pro-union candidates. Not all southerners participated in Confederate nationalism.

1860 and 1864 Presidential Election Cartoons by...

New York Senator William Seward, a leading contender, was passed over.

The Election of 1860 and Secession

Southern plantation owners were likely the richest men in the world. John Brown was elected as a state representative.

American History USA

Moreover, since 1791, Southerners had comprised a majority of the.

Related Books

- Mathematics - Teachers Edition \(Grade 4 Volume 1\)
- Groombridge Place - Groombridge Kent : the contents including furniture and clocks ... : days of sa
- Touch of dreams - Joan Miro ceramics and bronzes, 1949-1980 : an exhibition at the Sainsbury Centre
- Ear to the chest - an illustrated history of the evolution of the stethoscope
- Maternal-child nursing