Remember Charlie

When he had been in Hollywood only a short time, he met Marion Davies and Hearst through his friendship with Charles Lederer, a writer, then in his early twenties, whom had met and greatly admired in New York when Lederer was still in his teens. He was more likely to arrive unannounced and then madden the cook by staying for lunch or dinner.

Remember Charlie

Burned over 50% of his body, Charlie spent five years in the hospital. In spite of a crippling condition, he lived valiantly to the end of his life on this earth, submitting himself to the will of our Father in Heaven without complaint, and showing patience, long suffering, and kindness to those around him. These writers were to become the nucleus of the.
