Policy on waste discussed

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, AUG 2

A meeting held at the Secretariat on Thursday discussed the draft policy on solid waste management rules. Principal Secretary for Municipal Administration Arvind Kumar said that the solid waste management policy should be reviewed at keeping in view of the newly constituted municipal bodies in the state.

Mr Kumar also stressed on the need to work out a strategy to improve source segregation, transportation, processing and disposal of garbage in the newly constituted municipal bodies. Dr T.K. Sridervi said that 40 ULBs are manufacturing compost while 30 dry resource collection centers are functioning in the ULBs. Professor Srinivas Chary of Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) also participated in the meeting.
