Texas Literary Journals & Magazines

They cover everything from global warming, to pollution, and endangered species. This well-known Washington Post blog covers relatable yet unique essays from parents of all stages. Publishes short fiction, novel excerpts, and novellas.

Creative Writing Journals and Literary Magazines Accepting Submissions

Another pillar of the online writing community, The Legendary regularly publishes some superb underground poetry and other interesting features. Then there are the bylines. Articles should be highly relevant and relatable, with a Western New York tie-in when possible.

Darlene West

Most of our articles are researched one year before publication date, especially if they are dependent upon seasonal factors such as snow or fall foliage.

Make sure you know how to write excellent query letters and send first-rate pitches to the editors.
