Exodus 13:21 And the LORD went before them in a pillar of cloud to guide their way by day, and in a pillar of fire to give them light by night, so that they could travel by day or night.

Certain concepts, dating probably from the pre-biblical period, reflect the belief that day is the basis of all that is good; these concepts have entered the Bible e. Canyonland by Night and Day takes pride in giving you and your family the ultimate vacation by matching your needs with the ideal tour. And Jehovah went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, that they might go by day and by night: And God led them, in the day by a pillar of cloud, to show them the way, and in the night by a pillar of fire.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

What did the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night signify? (Exodus 13:21

In all the travels of the Israelites, whenever the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle, they would set out; but if the cloud did not lift, they did not set out—until the day it lifted. The LORD went in front of them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so they could travel both day and night.

All Day and a Night

To stave her and other diabolic creatures off, the rabbis forbade people to go out alone at night, especially on Wednesdays and Fridays Pes. He guided them during the day with a pillar of cloud, and he provided light at night with a pillar of fire.

By day the Lord went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night.

Pillar of fire (theophany)

The pillar was not just symbolism but a real phenomenon.
