The World of Edgar Allan Poe: November 2010

However, come to the South and live with me, and we will talk all these matters over at our leisure. To this day, there is no real, concrete consensus on who copied whom. The first interaction between the two was in 1840 though they did not meet until 1845 in New York.

Chivers likely never saw her. If wise, he has not fashioned his thoughts to accommodate his incidents; but having conceived, with deliberate care, a certain unique or single effect to be wrought out, he then invents such incidents—he then combines such events as may best aid him in establishing this preconceived effect.

This poem was made up of 18 stanzas with 6 lines each. The poem is about an allegedly young man who is sitting alone on a dark and very bleak December night pining over the loss of his one true love Lenore.

Thomas Holley Chivers

One can almost feel the bleakness and the loneliness he must have felt being alone in his study with barely a fire left and everything dark around him

Edgar Allan Poe

The presence of Swedenborg in Yeats is very strong; when Yeats won the Nobel Prize, all he could find out about Sweden is about Swedenborg.
