Not only a story of brave men, the people who love them and their sad fate but interspersed with so much information as to how these types of natural disasters occur.

The Perfect Storm: A True Story of Men Against the Sea

It was a grim sense of reality, a scrambling to figure out what to do next, a determination to stay alive and keep other people alive, and an awareness of the dark noisy slamming of the boat.

The Perfect Storm: A True Story of Men Against the Sea

As a child I had always been terrified of the ocean and all its dangers. Do they pass around the whisky? Maybe it's his chiseled jaw, perfectly symmetrical face, and artfully cultivated five o'clock shadow. He does this by combining very technical know-how about fishing and boats with an understanding of the psychology behind men's choices to go out at sea and how they deal with survival and death.

The Perfect Storm: A True Story of Men Against the Sea by Sebastian Junger, Paperback

The electrical activity in their brain gets weaker and weaker until, after fifteen or twenty minutes, it ceases altogether. Theories about what happened to the Andrea Gail, no matter how well-reasoned and detailed, could not have supported The Perfect Storm in book-length.
