of federalism. The role of the Planning Commission had also been contributing to the strength of the Central government in financial matters.

Federalism in India Explained for IAS Exam

A central emergency is declared by the Governor-General and he alone can make laws for the federation during this period. The all India conference was held from 27 to 30 December, and resulted in formation of Students' Federation of India. On the other hand, Article 3 deals with establishment or creation of new states after reorganization of existing states which are already parts of India.

Federalism in India

The controversy arises from the fact that the grants for centrally sponsored schemes and central plan schemes are under the ruling party's control and discretion. Federal instruments for inter-governmental cooperation like the Inter-State Council and National Integration Council are not as effective as they should be in a vast country like India.
