Where to see his works in Budapest: This widely acclaimed artist created an entire set of realistic representations, and earned international fame by recreating scenes from peasant life, picturing weatherworn landscapes and oversized Biblical displays like the Christ Trilogy, which is on permanent display in. There Jules Bastien-Lepage had the greatest influence on him and then Ferenczy produced his first artworks in the style of French late naturalism. However, it aptly captures the capabilities of the Hungarian master in painting.
