In his own words: President Obama on faith

He has a blinding genius because it requires faith to believe something so outlandish.

The Faith of Barack Obama

In addition to providing an overview of how Obama has brought his faith into his campaigns, Mansfield also touches on the faith of George W. The bulk of his truly liberal policies at least at the time this article was written have yet to be implemented. This book is highly recommended for those of us who want a fresh look at the person behind the Presidential seal and the reasons for his inner strength.

In his own words: President Obama on faith

Was he the angry radical brother or the educated, upwardly mobile black? I pray for those who counseled him to continue to sow seeds where ever God leads. Geographically, he has lived in Hawaii, Indonesia and North America.

Five faith facts about former President Barack Obama's new book, 'A Promised Land'

As if healing the nation hasn't been among the phrases used for every new tenant of the White House for the last thirty years.

Five faith facts about former President Barack Obama's new book: 'A Promised Land'

Every breath is a living faith in resurrection. A remarkable number of his compatriots persisted in believing that he was a crypto-Muslim. And we see what happens around the world when this kind of religious-based or tinged violence can rear its ugly head.
