Hymns & Music :: Biography for Robert Murray McCheyne

The church saw astonishing growth, overflowing with 1,100 hearers. Robert also had great respect for his eldest brother David who in return took a keen interest in Robert's spiritual condition, but a sudden illness in the summer of 1831 resulted in David's death. Is there no one reading this whose heart is longing to possess just such a master-principle? All our content, including commentary and opinion, is intended to be information for our readers and does not necessarily indicate an endorsement by The Aquila Report or its governing board.

M'Cheyne Reading Plan

Internet; accessed February 1, 2007. It is a deep-laid plot of Satan.

Constrained by His Love BK854

After visiting as many Jewish settlements as time would allow, the four friends separated at Beirut. Maybe you too could print these thoughts or put it in a notebook to remind yourself from time to time.
