Beston All young ladies are invited to be at Fernwood Grange as soon after 10 p. Bestons brother and I will put a bit of the family tree on a bit later when I have it all together This was the House that Ernest bought all fully fitted out to move straight in and it was not long before Ernest started putting his own personal touches to the house like a ballroom that held 500 people a heated garage for his cars and this amazing Abyssinian Boudoir from a newspaper pic so quality is not so good I wonder what happened to some of the wonderful paintings in the house and who owns them today? Game Pie, Roast and Boiled Chickens, Tongue, Pressed Beef, Galantine of Veal Strawberry Cream, Fruit Salad, Open Fruit Tarts. AutoNet Insurance Services Ltd is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority FCA Registration number: 308213.

The Words Always Palladium Crop up quite a few times on Beston Photo's, invitations, business cards and menu's etc in a dictionary from that period 1900-20 it says a couple of meanings A wooden Image of Palias Athene which is said to have fallen from Heaven which the Trojans believed that their city would be invincible so long as it contained the Palladium several Greek city claimed to possess it The other meaning is it is a metal like gold closely resembling platinum but its harder and lighter The reason I have put this bit on here is because of the Little Black Book wrote between 1917-18 published by Ernest Beston Jan. Betty who in later life became a nun, Joy, Shirley, Sylvia and Valerie.
