Analysis of the 1995

We review the Governor's proposals and comment on them. Like other service branches of the PLA, the PLAN is subject to a political work system through which the Chinese Communist Party CCP guarantees absolute control over the armed forces.

In this respect, we note that the President's welfare reform proposal--which includes a two- year time limit on AFDC eligibility--would fund mandatory community service jobs for those unable to find employment through other means after two years on aid. The main objectives and summary checklist should be included as the first step of the process.

But whether it was the vote or the entrust issue, it surely required more than a comment on the side.

Kenneth C. Holt, Maryland Secretary of Housing & Community Development

Incremental progress can be tracked against objective indicators on a step by step worksheet.
