Liberation Theology

Perhaps the new prosperity following from reconstruction after World War II allowed students in Europe and Japan to turn attention away from mere survival and economic success in their societies to deal with the deep dissatisfactions they felt with those societies. In view of the approaches taken by white male theologians, Roman Catholics as well as Protestants, liberation theology in the U. Their primary motivation is religious based on popular religiosity embodying the cults of the saints and Virgin Mary.

in Struggle: Liberation Theologies and Social Change by Paul Mojzes

In the south, we have had a completely different orientation. For an atheist, agnostic or Marxist, the liberation process has a purely historical sense and nothing else.

Liberation Theologies in America

Lightsey has contributed an important work at the interface between womanist and queer liberation theologies. Cobb is to the point when he states that theology today is sadly unthinking.
