Memorial reconstruction

But he clings to it. The only thing foul about the manuscript is the poor quality of the handwriting in it.

Shakespeare as Literary Dramatist

The transcriber is able to include subtle differences of pronunciations between generations or even stations in life as David Crystal did in his transcription of Romeo and Juliet for the New Globe Theatre.

This is a major achievement of twentieth-century scholarship. Hiddleston as was Kenneth Branagh is 32.

'Stolne and Surreptitious': Heywood as a Test Case

Well, get this: Two of your best buds in the theatre company you were in you put 'em in your will, so we know you were tight , think so highly of you that they're going to publish a book of your plays, and I mean a huge book — like, everything you wrote alone, plus some things you worked on with other guys, and half of them have never seen print before.

To give their bed joy and prosperity.

Shakespeare as Literary Dramatist

It thus becomes possible to represent twentieth-century textual criticism as having been produced by the desire for a certain kind of narrative, one which calls into being certain individuals- solitary author or lone actor-for the purpose of holding them solely responsible for the production of the most diverse phenomena.
