And indeed, the rubrics do not require that these things all be done in immediate succession, so they would also be free to say None at 3pm, the conventional Mass immediately after, then continue to fast until Vespers at 6pm, and finally take their first meal of the day. For information on that service, see above, as in the Roman breviary.

The Liturgy of the Hours: Sing the Hours

These Intercessions often include a prayer for those who have died.

Sing the Hours

Hymn The introduction is followed by a hymn suited to the season or event. This web site © Copyright 1996-2021 . . . This reading may be followed by a period of silence or a brief reflection.

Evening Prayer (Vespers)

Scripture Reading: The Psalmody is followed by a reading from Sacred Scripture the Bible.

Universalis: Vespers

Each Psalm is followed by a brief period of silent reflection. Like the other hours, therefore, Vespers is divided into two parts; the psalmody, or singing of the psalms, forming the first part, and the capitulum and formulæ the second.

Universalis: Vespers

As a matter of fact it was no longer the evening hour, but the sunset hour, so that it was celebrated before the day had departed and consequently before there was any necessity for artificial light Regula S. ### New Liturgical Movement: Vespers in the Morning?

I will do my best to make all I do today pleasing to You and in accordance with Your will. Some regular community vespers services are completely areligious or at least are not sponsored by any church and serve simply as a time for quiet contemplation in the evening hours. It was so called because at this hour candles were lit, not only to give light, but also for symbolical purposes.
