Macbeth: Entire Play

In killing Duncan the couple did all three. Many also believe that it was composed for a performance before King James I, who had a deep interest in witchcraft. As the witches disappear, Ross arrives and presents Macbeth with his new title, but it becomes apparent that Macbeth has already begun to consider murdering Duncan and taking his place as king.

contemporary events fix the likely date of both as 1606, shortly after the completion and debut of King Lear.

Macbeth: Entire Play

El pavor y la duda avanzan entre episodios de violencia y sangre; al final, en unos versos célebres y frecuentemente citados acto V, escena 5 , el propio Macbeth acaba percibiendo la vida como «un cuento contado por un idiota, lleno de ruido y furia, que no significa nada».

Macbeth

A perfect opportunity presents itself when King Duncan pays a royal visit to Macbeth's castle. He is a wicked and immoral person who commits sins whereas Duncan is a moral person who rules the Scotland justly and peacefully.

Macbeth (character)

Lady Macbeth appears to be very evil. Macbeth is then crowned king. Opening with thunder and lightning, the drama is set in a Scotland contending with the rebellion of the thane feudal lord of Cawdor, whom the fearless and courageous Macbeth has vanquished on the battlefield.

Macbeth by William Shakespeare

To his friend, Combe bequeathed the sum of five pounds. After these prophecies, Macbeth appears to be an evil, ruthless and overly ambitious person.
