Explicit provision for this manner of service was thought desirable because a number of Federal and State statutes permitting foreign service do not specifically provide for service by personal delivery abroad, see e.

Rules of the District Courts of the State of Nevada

See Appendix II, at 1d. If you admit the claim, but desire time to pay, you must appear personally on the day set for the hearing and state to the Court your reasons for desiring time to pay.

Rules of the District Courts of the State of Nevada

Within 10 days after the service of the motion, the opposing party shall serve and file his written opposition thereto, together with a memorandum of points and authorities and supporting affidavits, if any, stating facts showing why the motion should be denied.

The paragraph is explicit that the costs of enforcing the cost-shifting provision are themselves recoverable from a defendant who fails to return the waiver. If any day on which an act required to be done by any one of these rules falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday the act may be performed on the next succeeding judicial day. An additional safeguard is provided by the requirement that the mailing be attended to be the clerk of the court.

The general mail rooms of large organizations cannot be required to identify the appropriate individual recipient for an institutional summons. More time may be needed, for example, when a request to waive service fails, a defendant is difficult to serve, or a marshal is to make service in an in forma pauperis action.

PART 212. Uniform Civil Rules For The District Courts

Within 10 days after decision of the court awarding any judgment or order that requires settlement and approval by the court, the prevailing party, unless otherwise ordered by the court, shall prepare a judgment or order in accordance with the decision, attempt to secure the approval as to form of opposing parties thereon, and following such approval file it with the court electronically or, if the case is not within the JIMS, deliver an original paper document and 1 copy to the court. See Jones, supra, at 537.
