NATO Update

Therefore, at a Council of Foreign Ministers meeting in Berlin chaired by German Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher in June 1991, a resolution was passed condemning Yugoslav government activities in Slovenia and Croatia. The training exercise, attended by border officers and representatives of the state nuclear regulator, focused on detecting radioactive materials at border checkpoints and was the second such exercise held this year.

NATO Update

At the same meeting, the Russian Federation pledged in the Istanbul Commitments to withdraw its remaining military forces and equipment from the territories of Georgia and Moldova. At the Budapest Summit in 1994 the member states agreed that the CSCE had become sufficiently institutionalized with a permanent secretariat and associated organs that it could be renamed the Organization on Security and Cooperation in Europe and declare itself to be a regional security organization under Chapter VIII of the United Nations UN Charter.
