International review of cytology : a survey of cell biology. Volume 181 (eBook, 1998) [satis.farmjournal.com]

Application of principles of biology at the genomic level. Distribution of expression x axis of EEC TFs and hormones columns in cells from each subset rows. This course will explore the implications of the necessity of mitonuclear coadaptation for the evolution of quintessential eukaryotic characteristics, including sex and two sexes, a sequestered germ line, senescence, discrete species, mate choice, and adaptation.

History of Cell Biology

The free fatty acid receptors Ffar 1 and 4 show specific expression patterns: Ffar1 highest in SIN cells, and also expressed by the Cck-expressing subsets previously termed I-cells SIL-P, SILA and SIK-P , while Ffar4 is highest in the GIP-expressing subsets SIK and SIK-P. Taught only at Dauphin Island Sea Lab DISL.

Up-regulation of pro-inflammatory apolipoproteins Serum Amyloid A 1 and 2 Saa1 and Saa2 in distal enterocytes under Salmonella infection.
