I tend to find it more useful to discuss the nature of the -traditions- with these terms rather than the nature of personal beliefs or orientations, as I feel that is where the muddling you mentioned can happen, when people choose to use words they way they'd like to, and so personalize them, which can have the effect of obscuring their meanings. The most common numeric event in reference today is 11:11, which has developed quite a following in the new age community.
