I may pronounce that were it so, Assurance is a dream ; Since none are perfect here below.

Canal Routes

Approaching the south may be seen, the most distant of any point, the Brecon beacon ; in the south, the Cleehills, which are the highest in Shropshire, and Malvern in the extreme distance. I rejoice with thee in thy favourable accounts from America; especially that the good fortune and success of thy nephew is accompanied with a continued attachment to the substance, as well as to the forms of religion.

The Family of Robert Alan & Susan Bennett

It happened to be the time of the races when we were at Lancaster, which made it rather unpleasant at the inns. In general I am employed all the day long in the unavoidable avocations of business, which, though they divert my mind from reflecting on scenes that never will return, exhaust the spirits, and when I return from the works to my once cheerful habitation, my unhappiness appears the more formidable, through that application to business which prevented my reflecting on scenes which every surrounding object now brings to my remembrance, with heightened anguish. If you enjoy seeing pretend tar painted in black on the inside of a dimly lit brick passageway leading to a dead-end within a hillside - or if you are a canalcoholic of the highest order - then I highly recommend Coalport Tar Tunnel! This book examines the development of English Copper coinage, the way it has been affected by corrupt practices, the history associated with the coinage and the insight provided into 18th Century society by the coins minted.
