Tom Hollander is most famous for his role in Rev 'Playing Dylan on the cusp of death looking awful wasn't easy, but the emotional stuff, like crying, which he did a lot, was harder. In the end only five words were unresolved.

Dylan Thomas

At least not in the traditional sense. The poem contains a variety of images that, while lovely in their own right, often do not contain a clear narrative or make a single emotional statement.

Portrait of the poet

Dylan needed funds to support his twin addictions to nicotine and alcohol, apart from the needs of his family. Certainly, the drunkenness that is said to be a perennial weakness of the Celts was a fatal flaw in his character. Thomas tells the reader to fight death and live life to its fullest before we die.

STEVEN BERNSTEIN: Dylan Thomas had 18 double scotches in the White Horse Tavern in one day. We have a volunteer within ten miles of your requested photo location. With the help of some amused locals, both Thomas and McAlpine were hauled onto the back of a lorry along with their bicycles and were driven back to their lodgings outside the town.

The last days of Dylan Thomas

The fictional town of Llareggub in Under Milk Wood is thought to be modelled on Laugharne - with its 'wood limping invisible down to the sloeblack, slow, black, crowblack, fishingboat-bobbing sea. Although the autopsy indicated that pneumonia was the primary cause of death, many believed it to have been alcohol-related, because he had been engaged in a drinking binge prior to his expiration. It is humankind against, and in relation to, their own senses.

The last days of Dylan Thomas

From the beginning, there was not much doubt about Dylan's future career. His last words were: After 39 years this is all I've done.

Hale, normally known for his comedic work on Arrested Development and Forky! Share Griff's original idea was to make a documentary-style drama about the last days of Dylan's life in New York in 1953 - ten days or so of ecstatically received performances, one-night stands, alcoholic benders, vomiting fits, asthma attacks, blackouts, coma and death.
