EXISTENTIAL ART THERAPY THE CANVAS MIRROR

The Can A classic in art therapy literature since its introduction nearly two decades ago, this book is an expression of the authorOCOs desire to link the practice of art psychotherapy to the core issues of life as presented in existentialism. Unique features include: existential values and artistic traditions; metaphor, ritual, and journey; structuring chaos; existential emptiness and art; tenets of existential art therapy; the frame of The Canvas Mirror; listening to images and relating to artworks; dimensions of creative action; artists of the cutting edge; the changing face of illness; existential leadership and basic tasks; and dialoguing with dreams. The primary weakness that I would identify is that Moon does not engage deeply with the contemporary existential literature.
