It is a joy that may coexist with a bad mood and personal frustration because it is a joy that springs from our sharing in the cross of Christ. Hence, Father Kereszty shows in this book that eucharistic doctrine and spirituality are inseparably connected.

Eucharistic poetry (1991 edition)

However, it is only within the Mass and not in a communion service that Christ through the Holy Spirit transforms our bread and wine, the signs of our own ineffective gift of self, into his own perfect sacrifice.
