On the latter, scripture is the means by which God and the ways of God may be revealed to persons. While some early professing Christians stressed the humanity of Jesus over his divinity some held a view termed adoptionism, according to which Jesus, as a man, was adopted by God the Father to bring about salvation , others stressed the divinity of Jesus over his humanity docetism. His kingdom shall have no end.

Practicing wickedness can very much seem like being under the power of some stronger power.

A Handbook of Christian Social Ethics 2 Volumes Eberhard Welty Hardcover 1960/63

If someone has wronged a person and has not confessed or repented, is it permissible for the victim to forgive the wrong-doer or is confession and repentance a precondition for forgiveness? I'm trying to balance my postgraduate ethics class with some reading by Christian counseling and therapy professionals. Conduct of itself, however, is merely the outward expression of character; and character again has its roots in personality; so that if we are to form a just conception of life we have to examine the forces which shape human personality and raise it to its highest power and efficiency.
