The Office of the Holy Week According to the Missall and Roman Breviary ...

We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant. All the words printed in the color red are your instructions and all the words printed in black are the prayers you actually pray. The antiphons, responses, and versicles in the various hours are also very largely taken from the Psalter, so this book of the Bible furnishes the greatest percentage of the text of the Office.

The Roman Missal

The Times of the Hours and their Liturgical Significance Other than what is mentioned above, there are no hard-and-fast rules on what time the Hours should be said. We expect that you will understand our compulsion in these books.

Office de la semaine sainte (1701 edition)

One reason for this is the general preference for maintaining the full four-week cycle of psalms as far as possible. May be very minimal identifying marks on the inside cover. The considerable prefatory matter usually found in the winter volume, is issued as a separate brochure.
