Policies

Child abuse and neglect are complex problems rooted in unhealthy relationships and environments. NSW Health delivers a range of programs to reduce the harm and impact of child abuse, neglect, sexual assault and domestic violence on children and young people.

Child Protection Policies & Procedures

The Clearinghouse will identify promising, supported, and well-supported practices for mental health and substance abuse prevention and treatment programs, in-home parent skill-based programs, and kinship navigator programs appropriate for children who are candidates for foster care pregnant or parenting foster youth, and the parents or kin caregivers of those children and youth. This Handbook is a project of the and the New Mexico Judicial Education Center at the.

Suspected Child Abuse

The director will immediately notify the Department of Early Education and Care after filing a 51A alleging abuse or neglect. Intended to serve as a current, convenient secondary source of law, policy and practice for child abuse and neglect cases, the Handbook is not intended to serve as legal authority; instead, consult primary sources for actual legal language and requirements.

Prevention Strategies

Public Policy
