The Punishment should fit the Crime Oliver Latham 10J Essay Example

Are there similarities between the two? Does our punishment really fit the crimes? In my opinion capital punishment could be a just punishment because putting a murderer to death is the only effective way of protecting society and making sure it does not happen again simply because the person is dead. He doesn't help set policy, and he doesn't help put it into action in the field. It appeals to people on practical grounds, in that it offers some hope of helping both the victims and the offenders, as well as society.
