Maryland Local Government

By retaining soil on-site, sediment and attached nutrients are prevented from leaving disturbed areas and polluting streams.

Municipal Officials Handbook

This sets off a chain reaction that results in the transport and deposition of sediment, reduced stream capacity, and ultimately increased stream scour and flooding. We will welcome enthusiastically all criticism and corrections offered by the reader, which may be communicated directly to the Local Government Center at Montana State University, Bozeman, MT 59717.

Handbook for Wisconsin Municipal Officials

A voluntary, non-profit, nonpartisan association controlled and maintained by city and town governments, MML works to strengthen and support municipal government through advocacy and the development of effective leadership. These statements are due from the public official within 30 days of assuming a position that requires disclosure, annually by April 30, and within 60 days of terminating State service.

Available Publications

This magazine has a distribution of approximately 7,000 copies. Updated four times since its inception, this latest version purports to be far more comprehensive in nature than previous versions. Your questions and concerns are important to us.

Publications — Oklahoma Municipal League

Presentations can be arranged by contacting the member services or research departments at the MML office in Annapolis 1212 West Street. The PDF uploaded to this page consists of the first chapter of this updated handbook. Please discuss all legal matters with and follow the advice of your city or town attorney.

Publications

OML does not give legal advice or act as a legal advisor. In addition to the elected officials, city administrators and managers, the magazine is sent to police chiefs, fire chiefs and other department heads.

Soil Erosion and Sediment Control

The Maryland Department of Planning coordinates the SDC program in Maryland. Through its membership in the National League of Cities MML offers legislative representation in Washington, urban research programs, and a national municipal government information exchange. The manual can be downloaded or pick up a copy at any MVA branch office.
