Diplomatic soldiering : Nigerian foreign policy, 1975

In acquiescence, Nigeria had variously lived more than this expectation. For example, the Eagles set the Rattlers' flag on fire and the Rattlers destroyed the Eagles' cabin. In essence, the task before the new administration was how to change the pariah status of Nigeria and regain the lost ground in international reckoning.

Gowon elated over Nigeria

Their economies were perpetually tied to the western capitalist Economic system. His government was overthrown in the first military coup on 15 January 1966 Olusanya and Akindele, 1986. Most importantly, during an important voting session at the General Assembly or at the Security Council, these same States become the ready targets of lobby and it is not rare to learn that the debts owed by the representatives of these States to the New York landlords become objects of trade by barter.
