Nor must we forget to add, that the belief of the first Christians in the doctrine of the Trinity, is, of itself, no inconsiderable evidence of its truth. My Father worketh hitherto, and I work, — Making Himself equal with God. Primo ergo ideo pluralitatem Deorum non sunt censendi inferre perfecte, tum quod ipsi licet falso statuant, tres istas personas esse unius numero atque individuae essentiae, inter personas autem illas, et quidem primo loco collocent eam quae verus ac summus est Deus, cui etiam prerogativam quandam prae caeteris tribuunt; tum quod si rem ipsam spectemus, Christus Deo in imperio revera subordinatus sit, eatenus, cum Deo unum; Spiritus vero sanctus utriusque insit, Deo quidem primum, consequentur etiam Christo, qui a Deo illius factus est particeps.

The writer alluded to paraphrases the words thus : " none is good but one person, that is, H 98 SERMON III. Tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Again, it may be said that the notion that the death of Christ is to be considered apart from His life, eternal and incarnate life, as the atoning work, is far too narrow to express the teaching of the Bible and far too shallow to meet the demands of an ethical conscience.
