International Sports Law: Gambling in Football: The Scottish Perspective

Thus formulation of the debate in terms of sameness or difference must be transcended by understanding equality. While the basic right to political equality is taken for granted in many societies today and is explicit in the norms of international law CEDAW 1979 , in some cultures women are still not equal citizens. Asser Institute with a focus on Transnational Sports Law.

Sport and the Law : The Scots Perspective

That the feminist message of opposing female subordination was criticized as a Victorian condemnation of immoral sex, some feminists contended, illustrated the deep entrenchment of the domination model. Rape laws have been reformed to varying degrees in many societies, although even the best arguably still have far to go McGregor 2005; Estrich 2001; Taslitz 1999; Schulhofer 1998.
